

Script Outline

Potential Lines	Subject of Convo.	Time	Notes
		0:00	Introduction
“It isn’t enough to sleep with the person but now college students are required to say yes when sleeping with someone because of the mixup of rape”	Colleges have the “Yes means Yes” bill	0:12
“You have a girl that wake up in the morning and thinks ‘Oh gosh’. She realizes the guy is really ugly and regrets sleeping with him. Instead of writing it up as regret she says “He raped me.”	Protects females from being victims and males from being accused of rape	2:30	Thought this was funny and good to use in the play
“I was on a path, I guess, to do what was interesting at the time. So I got my degree in neuroscience because I like the brain and to be completely honest with you once you graduate college, a lot of times you don’t really know what you want to do.”	How her education contributed to fixing herself on a particular job.	4:54	Could reassure students
“I like it. It’s not like TV shows where everybody does everything, we only	Her opinion on her profession	6:17	Interesting fact that can connect with the audience because we live in

work on DNA. Usually our unit is pretty busy with cases. We interact primarily within the sex crimes department. We don't have a high rate of homicide in San Diego which is a good thing."			San Diego.
"The way that it works is that the detective will write up a request and send it to our clerical unit and will give it to my supervisor and he'll review the scenarios and so we'll tell the detective to write a short paragraph about what happened."	Process of the Rape Cases they are presented with	8:36
"Sometimes they'll try to put a case through that we can't do anything so far as DNA..."		9:00	Sometimes the lab techs can't help so much in a rape case if there isn't DNA
"I'm a criminalist of the Department and I'm a wife breeder at the moment. So when the rape case comes in we test swabs for semen."	The meaning of her job	9:15	The words she used here were pretty straight-forward